

NANCY WYNNE HAS A LITTLE CHAT ON MANY THINGS OF INTEREST

No Large Social Event Will Occupy Society Today—A Small Dance Will Be Given for the Misses Sheppard on Wednesday

MILDRED AND CAROLYN SHEPPARD, the attractive debutante daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. Maxwell Sheppard, will be given a dance Wednesday night by Mr. and Mrs. John Lynn Clawson at their home, 2015 Walnut street.

Speaking of small dances, I don't think the big balls are half as much fun when you have a congenial crowd; the point is to get one. I heard of one affair recently where the same old affair was heard, "not enough men to go round," and the worst of it was that every young man at that party had answered promptly (let us hope Nancy has had some effect, in that way, so those who were obliged to regret could be replaced.

Perhaps there were some wee buds who did not mind it. You never can tell what they will do next at that age. I know at one party a few grew weary of dancing just before it was time to serve the sausage-and-hot-cake part of the dance, so they wandered down to the kitchen and watched the cook pare potatoes and fry them in boiling fat.

It's awfully hard to know what to wear these days, isn't it? I met a woman yesterday who was in a hectic state of excitement as to whether she ought to take a heavy coat or a thin one; down to Atlantic City over the week-end. "It is so warm I don't want to roast, you know, but, then again, suppose a blizzard should start. I am a nervous wreck on the subject. I don't want to lug a heavy coat if it is warm, and I certainly don't want a thin coat if it is cold."

The children have much to do with our destiny in many affairs in these enlightened days. A young widow, who recently remarried, told me she had a terrible time getting her young daughter to approve of her choice when she really did wish to remarry. She and her fiancé had some thinking to do to get round daughter on the matter. They managed it beautifully by the prospective stepfather's tact. He promptly became so delightful to small daughter that she almost thought he was her property, and demanded his time on all occasions.

Personals

Mrs. J. Ogden Hoffman, of 324 and Pine streets, entertained informally at luncheon yesterday at 1:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. S. Bartram Richards, of 1011 Pine street, have been spending some time as the guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Townsend, at their home in Overbrook. Mr. and Mrs. Richards will leave very shortly to spend the month traveling through the West. They will visit the Grand Canyon, Los Angeles, the San Diego Exposition and will make Santa Barbara their headquarters, remaining there for several weeks.

ford, Mr. and Mrs. William Mulford, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lippincott, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Lippincott, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Levick and Mr. and Mrs. J. Smythe Herkness.

The Manufacturers' Club will give a musicale in the auditorium of the club on Monday afternoon, January 24, at 4 o'clock, for members and their families. An attractive program has been arranged by the committee. The following artists will perform: Miss Helen Buchanan, soprano; Mrs. Leonie Gruen, pianist; Mrs. Thaddeus Rich, violinist, and Mr. Ellis Clark Hamman, accompanist.

Weddings

SLADE-BEYLL

The marriage of Mrs. Mary Clothier Heyl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac H. Clothier, of Hallsboro, Wynnwood, to Mr. Alexander Turnbull Slade, of New York, will take place quietly this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the bride's home in Wynnwood. Only the immediate families will be present. After a Southern trip Mr. and Mrs. Slade will be at home in Wynnwood after March 1.

BARKER-WRIGHT

A pretty wedding took place at 11 o'clock this morning when Miss Betty Burrows Wright, daughter of Mrs. Frank Burrows, was married to Mr. Charles Furbush Barker, of Gladwyne. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, 46 East Stewart avenue, Lansdowne, and was performed by the Rev. George H. Van Alen, of Rutledge, Pa., a cousin of the bride. Miss Wright was married in her traveling suit, of African brown cloth, and a brown tulle hat. She wore a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Marjorie Barker, a sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She was gowned in a salmon pink tulle and tulle gown and carried a sheath of Sweetheart roses. Mr. Robert Gilmore, of Narberth, was best man.

A breakfast followed the ceremony. The rooms were decorated with pink roses, cyclamen, orchids and Southern amilax. Mrs. Burrows, the mother of the bride, wore heliotrope tulle, veiled in black tulle, and a corsage bouquet of violet orchids.

Among the guests were Mr. Thomas H. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. L. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Barker, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wanger, Dr. Frank H. L. Barker, Miss A. V. Kirk, Miss Nellie McVeh, Miss Mary Pyne, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Trotter, Dr. and Mrs. Van Alen.

REYNOLDS-McCURDY

A quiet wedding will take place tonight at 7:30 o'clock, when Miss Mary F. McCurdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. McCurdy, of Ardmore, will become the bride of Mr. Harvey J. Reynolds, of Malvern. The Rev. Edmund Grindal Rawson, pastor of the Ardmore Presbyterian Church, will perform the ceremony at the bride's home, on West Lancaster avenue.

Miss McCurdy, who will be given in marriage by her father, will have Miss Rachel McCurdy and Miss Edna Hamilton, of Philadelphia, and Miss Helen Ziegler, of Glenside, for bridesmaids. The best man, Mr. F. McCurdy, of Ardmore, will be Mr. Reynolds' only attendant.

The ceremony will be followed by a large reception, after which Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds will leave for their wedding trip, and upon their return will live in Malvern, where they will be at home after March 1.

HOFF-VACHE

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Julia R. Vache, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Vache, of 1729 West Venango street, to Mr. William H. Hoff, on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. A. E. Harris, assistant pastor of the Grace Baptist Church, Broad and Berks streets. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of white satin and tulle with a tulle veil caught with sprays of orange blossoms. Miss Alice Vache, the maid of honor, was her sister's only attendant. Her frock was of pink tulle draped over pink tulle. After the service a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Hoff will live at 1434 Euclid avenue.

ECKEL-REICH

The marriage of Miss Aena Reich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reich, of 417 South 60th street, and Mr. Leon Eckel, of 6156 Spruce street, will be celebrated at 5:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon at the West Philadelphia Hebrew Congregation, 54th and Chestnut streets. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. D. Griver. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will

WINTER RESORTS

FLORIDA Eight Personally Conducted Tours—Ten Independent Coupon Tours EAST COAST and WEST COAST—NASSAU and HAVANA Departures During February and March BERMUDA Parties Leaving Every Week, 5 to 16 Day Tours. Inclusive Rates $28.00 and Up Send for the Itinerary That Interests You. Address GILLESPIE, KINSPOUT & BEARD, 1115 Walnut St., Phila.

Hotels and resorts advertisement including Hotel Dennis, Traymore, and Hotel Chamberlin.

MRS. CHARLES FURBUSH BARKER Who was Miss Betty Burrows-Wright, daughter of Mrs. Frank Burrows, of Lansdowne. Her marriage to Mr. Barker took place this morning. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Barker will live in Gladwyne.

Along the Main Line OVERBROOK—Mrs. Wilson Young, Jr., of 627 Woodbine avenue, will entertain at dinner on Friday evening, January 28, in honor of her daughter, Miss Bertha Young, before the meeting of Mrs. Guy Overend's dancing class. Covers will be laid for 20 guests.

Chestnut Hill A very popular series of dances has been attended all winter, and for two or three winters at "Crusaders' Hall," Mt. Airy. The members include Mr. and Mrs. E. Rittenhouse Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Orchard, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Antoine Bourneville, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tucker, Miss Mary Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Bracken, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ross Carver, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts, Mr. George Fetterman, Dr. Weirid B. Fetterman, Mr. Philip Brocklesby, Mr. George Malloy, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Tucker, Jr. There was a most successful dance on Thursday night of last week, before which a number of attractive dinners were given. The last dance of the series will take place on Wednesday, February 2.

Wilmington General and Mrs. T. Coleman du Pont, Miss Ellen du Pont and Mr. Eleuthere du Pont left this week for New York, where they will spend the remainder of the winter. Miss Renee du Pont, who recently made her debut, is spending several weeks in Kentucky. She will join her parents later in New York.

What's Doing Tonight Five o'clock Club dinner, Bellevue-Stratford, 7 o'clock. Ex-President Taft addresses Traffic Club dinner, Bellevue-Stratford, 7 o'clock. Lecture, "English Poetry," John Masefield, Bryn Mawr College, 8 o'clock. Dot and Dash Club, Adelphi Hotel. Associated Alumni of the Central High School, annual reunion and banquet, Adelphi Hotel, 8:30 o'clock. Netherlands Society dinner, Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, 7 o'clock. Southern Dental Association of New Jersey, dinner, Adelphi Hotel, 7 o'clock. Banquet, P. Delta Upsilon Fraternity, Ruttenhouse Hotel. Suffrage debate, Physical Culture Club, Girard building, 8 p. m.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES Temple University BROAD AND BERKS STREETS College courses (A. B. B. S.). Teachers' College (B. S. in Ed.). Commercial Education (Normal). Commercial course, Secretarial courses, and short practical business courses. Freshman classes forming February 1. STRAYER'S The Best Business School, 801-807 Chestnut Street.

WINTER RESORTS SUMMERVILLE, S. C. PINE FOREST INN AND COTTAGES SUMMERVILLE, S. C. Near Ocean Beach. 18-hole Golf Course. Tennis and driving. Billiard and bowling. Hotel. Quail, wild turkey, and deer hunting. This is a special cat outfit. Booklet on Application. F. W. Wagener & Co., Proprietors. CHAR. A. WELLS, Manager.

OLD POINT COMFORT, VA. HOTEL CHAMBERLIN 510 POINT COMFORT Swimming Pool, Golf, Seafood Cuisine, European Baths and Treatment. For terms write GEO. F. ADAMS, Manager. Telephone 1000, York, Va. "Ask Mr. Foster," 1115 and Chestnut Sts.; Cooks' Tour, 121 S. Broad St.; Penna. R. Co., 142 Chestnut St.

Germantown

Miss Emma Cahall, of 154 West Chelton avenue, will have Miss Natalie Hawley, of New York, as her guest the latter part of January. Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Hampton Schell, of 32 West School lane, have had Mr. and Mrs. Hoopes, of Wilmington, Del., as their guests.

The Germantown Cricket Club was a gay scene last night, when the members of Mrs. Joseph S. Lavington Wharton's dancing class appeared in costumes numerous and varied. There were French maids, peasant girls and men, Caroleans and many others popular at every costume dance.

There will be a very interesting meeting this afternoon in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association when Miss Schofield and Miss Fell, of England, will tell of the pitiful cases of fatless babies in France. Mrs. Cornelius Stevenson will also speak.

Along the Reading

The concert and entertainment held last night at 8:15 o'clock at the Abington High School was given by the Home and School Association of Abington. The occasion of the presentation to the high school of a stage curtain. Some of those who rendered musical selections were Miss Nan Dagny, soprano solo, entitled "For All Eternity" and "The Secret." The accompaniments were played by Miss Marie Woolley. A musical solo, entitled "Caprice in a minor," was played by Mrs. H. Vance Peters. A tenor solo was sung by Mr. Paul Kraft, and a recitation, "Arthur and Herbert," from Shakespeare was given by Miss ABRAR.

West Philadelphia Mrs. John Schwartz, Jr., of the Netherlands, 480 Chestnut street, will give a luncheon of 60 covers today at the Manufacturers' Club. Mr. and Mrs. John Toram, of 629 South 57th street, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary today. A theatre party, followed by dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford, will be given in their honor.

West Philadelphia The W. W. T. G. M. Sewing Circle met last night at the home of Miss Margaret Main and Miss Jessie Main, 504 Haverfort avenue. Those present were Miss Marguerite Morrow, Miss Dorothy Chestnut, Miss Elsie Headly, Miss Marian Headly, Miss Elizabeth Nesbitt, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Ada Hackmann, Miss Mabel Hackmann and Mrs. J. Louis Gilman.

West Philadelphia Notices for the Society page will be accepted and printed in the Evening Ledger, but all copies of the paper, must be signed in full, with full address, and when possible telephone number. Send all such communications to "Society Editor," Evening Ledger, 608 Chestnut street. Unless these requirements are carried out no verification may be possible, the notice will not be published.

LYCEUM INSTITUTE TO HOLD INTERESTING MEETING THURSDAY

Mr. Fullerton L. Waldo, Musical Critic of the Public Ledger, Will Address the Members and Their Friends at Alumni Building—Other Doings

ONE of the most attractive and interesting entertainments of the year will be given by the committee in charge of the meeting of the Lyceum Institute next Thursday evening, at 8:15 in the Alumni Building, Broad street above Columbia avenue. The meeting will be opened by a violin solo, followed by a talk by Mr. Fullerton L. Waldo, musical critic of the Public Ledger. The evening will be a musical one and Mr. Waldo will speak on "Music, Old and New." This is a fascinating subject to music lovers, and it will be sympathetically handled by Mr. Waldo, who is a thorough musician as well as a critic. He is a most entertaining speaker and the friends of the Lyceum Institute are assured of an unusually pleasant evening.

Following this will be a sketch, written and staged by Mr. Lester M. Goldsmith, entitled "The Music Shop" with the following cast: Proprietor—Mr. Lester M. Goldsmith. A Patron—Mr. Lewis Weil. Accompanist—Mr. Louis Cooper.

SONGS "Comin' Thro' the Rye," Miss Selma B. Schwab and Miss Edith Weil. "Old Black Joe," Mr. Stanley Oppenheimer. "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Miss Elodie Kober and Mr. Adrian Bauer. "School Days," Miss Helen Hohlbron and Miss Florence Hubachman. "Extra-Syncopated Waltz," Justin and Fleurette Bauer. "America, I Love Thee," Miss Miriam Ullman.

The committee in charge is composed of Miss Beattie Rosenberg, chairman; Miss Rhos Olsho, Miss Gertrude Bauer and Mr. Lester M. Goldsmith. The third annual show and dance, which is to be given in the Bellevue-Stratford on Friday evening, February 4, for St. Francis' Convalescent Home, is being effectively arranged, not only by the members who are taking part in the show, but by the girls who are on various committees for the outside work and the selling of flowers, candy, cigarettes and music.

Miss Marjorie Edwards has charge of the flowers and is assisted by Mrs. F. Lottin Patterson, Miss Helen Dempsey, candy, assisted by Miss Margaret Dempsey, Miss Marie Bonner and Miss Mary

The Sigma Phi Sorority of the Girls' High School will be entertained at the home of the president, Miss Annabel Crozier, 3548 Frankfort avenue, today. The members who will attend are Miss Edith Arold, Miss Gertrude Curry, Miss Helen Barclay, Miss Alma Donald, Miss Ida Leyman, Miss Lelia Randall, Mrs. L. Dalzell, Miss Louie M. Doroos, Miss Helen M. Baum, Miss Edith A. Cassler, Miss Hulda J. Apt and Miss Grace B. Winigale.

At a special meeting of the Gladstone Club, held on Sunday, February 23, was set as the date of its annual dance, to be held at Martel's Academy.

Women Who Manage Your Affairs Why Not Consult Our Women's Department? We are glad to answer inquiries, by letter or personally, not only from women seeking sound investments with good income yield, but from those women also who desire to become well informed on financial matters.

William P. Bonbright & Co., Inc. MARY H. INGHAM Manager Women's Department Room 506, 437 Chestnut St., Philadelphia

"The Wise Mamma Goose" A jolly, happy Punky Dunk tale! Little boys and girls will find great delight in the story of how Mamma Goose outwitted the Sly Old Fox, to the joy of all the Barnyard Folk. Given Free With Sunday's PUBLIC LEDGER Like all Punky Dunk stories, "The Wise Mamma Goose" is 32 pages in length, beautifully illustrated in six colors and so arranged that the children have all the fun of folding it into a real book. Punky Dunk books have won a warm place in childish hearts. Your children will enjoy them if you order your dealer to bring you the Public Ledger regularly.